CITY ITEMS.

FALSE.—The alarm of fire about 8 o'clock last evening was a false one.

GENEROUS.—A fine Clock was yesterday hung up in the Board of Trade Rooms, a present from Messrs. Carter & Galeray, Jewelers, 95 Lake street.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—Wm. A. Groves, Esq., sold to Lancaster & Tozier, fifty feet front on Wabash Avenue, between Old and North streets, for $5,000, on canal time.

THE WEATHER.—The following clipping will be appreciated hereaway:

"A flock of sheep, composed all 'wethers,' may be said to resemble our climate."

GREEN TURTLE SOUP.—Our friends of the Briggs House intend treating their guests to the luxury of genuine Green Turtle Soup to-morrow. The monster weighs nearly three hundred pounds.

GUIDI'S MUSICAL SOIREE.—On next Monday evening, Sig. G. C. Guidi announces a musical Soiree at Metropolitan Hall. On this occasion he will be assisted by Mrs. Blakely, Mrs. Mattason, Mr. DePassio, Mr. H. D'Antis, Mr. Hehl and Mr. Currie.

REVERE HOUSE.—This splendid hotel will be open for the inspection of the public between 3 and 5 o'clock this afternoon. On next Monday the house will be in readiness for the reception of guests.

PENSIONER WANTED.—The widow of Benjamin Rexford, late a Revolutionary Pensioner, will find something interesting to her from the Pension Office, by calling on L. P. Hingham Esq., No. 96 Randolph Street.

BEAUTIFUL EXHIBITION.—One of the most pleasing and interesting exhibitions in our city, is that offered by Prof. Grenier, at his glass blowing and spinning rooms, No. 77 Randolph street, near Dearborn. It is well worth seeing. His rooms are open day and evening. Call and see his wonderful manipulations.

COMING.—A number of new Omnibuses for the various lines of Parmelee & Co. Two very splendid ones, longer and handsomer than any yet on the lines, are now in their barn, corner of State and Randolph streets, which will be put on State street immediately, and the time between buses will be reduced to ten minutes. Their last vehicles, from Abbot's, Concord, are splendid affairs, beautifully painted.

RUSH OF TRAVEL.—Some idea of the immense travel through this city, may be had from the fact that at the Tremont House yesterday, they accommodated four hundred guests, two hundred and ninety-six of whom were new arrivals. This was exclusive of fifty children from Boston, en route for new homes in the west. These children were generously entertained by "mine hosts" of the Tremont, without charge, and sent on their way rejoicing.

DR. EVANS' LECTURE UPON KANSAS.—Those who feel an interest in Kansas, or who desire to obtain information relative to the Territory, will remember to attend Dr. Evans' Lecture to-night at Metropolitan Hall. Dr. Evans has recently returned from an extensive tour of the Territory and has acquired much valuable and interesting information relative to the social, moral and political condition of the people, the climate, resources, &c., and his lecture will doubtless be very interesting.

REMOVING A WRECK.—Capt. Hugunin, Deputy Harbor Master, yesterday made an attempt to move the sunken hull of a vessel which just now blockades the south channel of the harbor. A couple of steam tugs "pitched on" to the wreck, but it had become so embedded in the sand, as to render all attempts to tow it into deep water abortive. We learn that other and more efficient means will be taken to remove the obstruction.

UNPAID LETTERS.—The following is the list of letters detained in the post office in this city on the 16th inst.:

Messrs. Van Buren & Athias, Nottawa, Ill.; (no such office,) W. S. Newton, Sparta, Wis.; Thomas Russell, Lacon, Ill.; James Basher, Springfield, Ill.; B. Cox, Elgin, Ill.; James Regan, South Haven, Mich.; Collins, Broadford, Detroit, Mich. Mrs. John Doyle, Muscoda, Wis.; Miss Charlotte Hickox, Cooper, Mich.; Miss Ann Dolan, Toledo, Ohio.

THIS AFTERNOON'S CONCERT.—Mr. Ahner presents another attractive programme for the Concert this afternoon, which should, as it no doubt will, attract a large audience, and should the weather be pleasant, a crowded one. Here it is:

Auber's overture, la Serment; waltz by Labitzky—"Apollo's sounds;" the third movement from Mozart's symphony in D; Mr. L. Hehl, performs a solo upon the Piano Forte,—"la Source," composed by Blumenthal; overture from Beethoven's Fidelio; Anna Polka, by Bilse; solo for French Horn and Clarinet, Schubert; Aria from Verdi's opera, "Alzira."

The last Concert was not, we regret to say, as well attended as it should have been, but we hope the musical public will make amends for their absence on that occasion, by crowding the hall this afternoon.

ENGLISH LUTHERAN CHURCH.—A new church enterprise has lately been entered upon in this city under the auspices of the English Lutheran Church, and the pastoral charge of Rev. Thomas W. Kemp, formerly associated as coadjutor with the Rev. Dr. Stork of St. Mark's, Philadelphia. This effort receives the interest and sympathy of this denomination throughout the country, and to all acquainted with the evangelical history of this branch of the church universal, and its comparative standing for purity and elevation of religious tone and sentiment, together with their zeal in missionary effort and enterprise, it must be gratifying to see it take its place amongst us with such encouraging evidences of a state of success, prosperity and usefulness.

The place at present in use by this congregation to meet for the purpose of worship, is a room attached to the Light Guard Hall, corner of Randolph and State street.

GRADUATES OF BELL'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.—A public examination of the students, was held Thursday evening, at this College. The examination was thorough and searching, and the promptness and accuracy of the answers were truly creditable to the students; covering as they did, the extensive grounds of Commercial knowledge. Below are the names of those who received diplomas:

Wm. H. Swartwout, Utica, N. Y.; Thomas Barine, Chicago; Wm. W. Shaw, Chicago; Wm. H. Owen, Chicago; M. W. Borland, Joliet, Ills.; Geo. H. Emery, Concord, N. H.; Chas. C. Chapman, Du Page, Ills.; Joseph A. Dean, Tremont, Ills.; H. G. Smith, Williamson, N. Y.; J. A. Larrien, Joliet, Ills.; M. A. Beniham, Galesburg, Ills.; [illegible] Scottville, Ills.; Geo. W. Bacon, Dubuque, Iowa; H. B. Hostetter, St. Catharines, Canada West; Edgar F. Toby, Chicago; L. S. Davies, Davenport, Iowa; John Jay Hickey, Ottawa, Ills.; H. N. Freeman, Morris, Ills.; H. H. Haley, Joliet, Ills.; Geo. G. Williams, Jacksonville, Wisconsin.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Yesterday morning, upon the opening of this Court, Judge Wilson delivered a general lecture to those connected with the Court, relative to the careless and inefficient manner in which they had discharged their duties during the present term, and closed by inaugurating a new order of things, which gives promise that hereafter this tribunal will be one of the most orderly and systematic in the city. We are glad to know that all the officers of this Court heartily second the Judge in his efforts to produce order out of chaos, and we hope that hereafter, business will progress smoothly and satisfactorily to all concerned.

Charles A. Willard, convicted of stealing a pair of pants worth $4.50, was sentenced to thirty days confinement in the county jail, having been already imprisoned three months. An indictment against him for stealing a coat was dismissed.

[illegible] Foster, a colored man, convicted of stealing a pair of pants worth $3, was sentenced to one day's confinement in the county jail, having been already imprisoned two months. Foster has a sick and destitute family, and this being his first offence, the Court dealt leniently with him.

The Jury was discharged until Monday morning, and the Court adjourned until this afternoon. The Grand Jury is still in session, and will not probably finish the business before it, for some days.

THE PRICE OF BREAD IN CHICAGO.—Last fall the "Society for the amelioration of the poor of New York," published a list of prices of bread to consumers, in twenty of the principal cities of the world. Among them were the following:

[illegible]

A barrel of flour of 196 pounds, produces in well made dough ready for the oven 280 pounds; therefore there are 280 five cent loaves in a barrel of flour, and this gives as the product of a single barrel $14, to which add the value of the flour barrel, fifty cents, remaining in the hands of the baker, and we have $14 50 as the product of one barrel of flour, costing in the market, during the past three months, say $5 50. Much of the flour, most of it we might safely say, was bought by the baker for less than $5 00 per bbl., and a great deal of it at less than $4 50. This makes a difference of $9 00 between a barrel of flour simply, and a barrel of flour in the shape of "baker's bread." The price of flour went down considerably last winter and this spring, in price, below last summer's cost, but the size of the loaf remained stationary, or very slightly increased at some bakeries.

Flour can be converted into bread at a handsome profit, pound for pound: that is, the baker can well afford to sell a pound of bread at the same price he pays for a pound of flour, which would be, according to the quality of the flour, at present from two and a half to three cents per loaf, weighing a pound; or, half a dime for a two pound loaf made of good, sound $5 flour. The public receive hardly half this much bread for their money.

Last winter, a bakery on an extensive scale, was established at Brooklyn, N. Y., which from the great capacity for work, and the economy of heat and labor, can turn from four hundred and fifty to five hundred barrels of flour into bread of the best quality, every twenty-four hours—that is, can bake, with all ease, twenty barrels of flour into the best of bread, every hour, for family use, at a cost, when working up to only half its capacity, not exceeding 40 cents per barrel, and when fully occupied, not over 30 cents per barrel of flour—and when not required for family bread, at once goes on with the manufacture of "hard" or ship bread and crackers, at a cost of not over 30 cents for each barrel.

Bread manufactured thus, could be sold, with a large profit to the manufacturer, at an advance per barrel of $1, over and above the cost of flour. Add to the price, of good flour, which is about $5,50, one dollar, for baking, making $6,50 for the selling price of 268 pounds of bread, (280 pounds of dough, and a deduction of 4 per cent. for loss in baking,) or 2½ cents per pound. This would be a saving of more than 100 per cent. to families who purchase baker's bread.

Why would not an establishment in this city, built and worked after the plan of the great Brooklyn bakery, make money, and sell cheap bread, at the same time? Has any one the enterprise to take the hint and start one in Chicago?

BEAUTIFUL FOWLING PIECE—SOMETHING NEW.—We were yesterday shown a double barrel shot gun, manufactured by George T. Abbey, which, for perfection of workmanship, elegance of form, and accuracy in shooting excels anything of the kind we ever saw, and we have seen an eighty guinea gun made by Purdy, successor the honors of Joe Manton as the best gun maker in England.

The stock of Mr. Abbey's new gun is a choice piece of English walnut, the locks, furniture, &c., are engraved in scroll work in the most perfect and exquisite manner and the "hammers" are gracefully shaped. The locks were made by Mr. Abbey and so perfectly wrought and fitted to the stock as to be unexcelled. The barrels are of the best English laminated steel, No. twelve gage and highly finished. There is but one hook in the break off. This is so made in order to allow the "snails" of both barrels to be worked whole on the breeches, making the lock more nearly waterproof, and avoiding the placing of the break-off joint in the hollow of the snails, where it is most exposed to the action of mosture and the burnt powder escaping from the tube, by which causes the sharpness of this joint is so readily destroyed. This peculiar arrangement of Mr. Abbey's is something entirely new in the manufacture of shot guns. The weight of the barrels is four pounds, their length thirty inches and the whole weight of the gun is seven and one quarter pounds. This excellent gun, in the hands of a "good shot," is fatal to ducks, grouse and smaller game at sixty yards, "doubling them up" nicely, and snipe have been killed with it two instances at eighty yards.

Mr. Abbey is quite a young man, almost an enthusiast in his profession, a student and a thinker as well as a worker and the ability which he exhibits must one day place him in the front rank of gun makers both in this country and Europe. Mr. Abbey's place of business is at No. 220 Lake street where those who wish to examine the gun above noticed can have an opportunity. The price of this superb "shooting iron" is $200, about its first cost.

C. M. I. A.—The Chicago Mutual Improvement Association will meet again this evening, in Bryant & Stratton's College, No. 48 Clark street. A discussion and other exercises, may be expected. A full attendance of members is desired. The public are invited to attend.

ROWDYISM.—Officer Grant, yesterday morning, undertook to arrest John Woffingham and a chap named Hite—who were engaged in a fight.—They both pitched into the officer and succeeded in marking his face pretty well, but he finally subdued them and brought them before Justice King, who fined them $30 each.

GOOD NEWS! GOOD NEWS!—Persons in this vicinity given up to die of Consumption, or suffering from attacks of bronchitis, asthma, laryngitis, severe coughs, colds, or nervous debility, will be pleased to learn that Dr. Thomas Tilton, who introduced the wonderful, rare and speedy remedy here, called Dr. James' "Extract of Cannabis Indica," (Dr. Tilton is the son-in-law of old Doctor James, and acts by his directions) has been solicited to remain among us a few days longer. They will be better pleased to learn that he has consented to comply with these solicitations. We advise all who need a curative agent of this kind to apply to Dr. Tilton without delay. If you are not certain that your lungs are affected, but only suspect them to be diseased, you can have your doubts confirmed or dispelled by consulting a curious instrument which Dr. James invented, and which is called the "Spiro-Dynameter." It tells in a moment, and in the simplest manner, the precise strength and condition of the respiratory apparatus. Dr. Tilton, remember, is at room No. 11, Matteson House, adjoining the Central Passenger Depot, Chicago, Illinois. He has a plentiful supply of the "Extract of Cannabis Indica," which has been pronounced in all parts of the world, to be the most wonderful, and the greatest and best, medicine ever compounded. Dr. Tilton has other remedies of the most efficient character. The press of New York has almost unanimously endorsed Dr. James' remedies, and speaks daily in the highest terms of this method of disposing of them, as well as of his method for doing so. Do not die while a certain prospect of restoration to life and happiness is cheaply held out to you. Room No. 11, Matteson House.

ASTHMA.—JONAS WHITCOMB'S REMEDY, prepared from a German recipe, obtained by the late Jonas Whitcomb, in Europe. It is well known to have alleviated this disorder in his case, when all other appliances of medical skill had been abandoned by him in despair. In no case of purely Asthmatic character, has it failed to give immediate relief, and it has effected many permanent cures. Joseph Burnett & Co., Proprietors. For sale by J. H. Reed & Co. and Gale & Bro., Chicago, and by druggists generally, at $1 per bottle.

THE well known Stitching Machine of Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing Co., of 343 Broadway, New York, for the use of families, dressmakers, shirt, collar and clothing manufacturers, are being generally demanded by the people of the Western States, so they have been and are being purchased and used [illegible]

This Company, therefore, have found it necessary and best, [illegible] to establish Geo. R. Crittenden their permanent agent at Chicago, that the orders from the towns, cities and villages of this and surrounding States may be promptly executed.

The attention of families is called to this rapid, neat and almost noiseless machine, so beautifully adapted to the stitching of the finest and coarsest fabrics at pleasure.

GEO. R. CRITTENDEN, 163 Lake st., (over W. H. Ross & Co's) Chicago.

LATEST NEWS.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 17.

New Orleans papers and letters to the 11th have been received. They contain no news of importance.

Mr. Sayers this morning made a violent street assault on George. R. Herrick, in consequence of letters and communications in N. Y. Herald commenting severely on assistant secretary Clayton in connection with the payment of Thompson Indian claim. Mr. Sayers is a relative of Clayton.

Mr. Denver this morning entered upon his duties as Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

From Santa Fe.

ST. LOUIS, April 17, 1857.

Santa Fe dates have been received to the 16. Mr. Otero had been re-elected as delegate to Congress.

Considerable excitement was occasioned at Santa Fe by a collision between an American named Grader and a soldier. Grader shot the soldier, and gave himself up. He was locked in jail and during the night a party of soldiers entered the jail, fired forty shots, killed Grader and another prisoner and wounded two.

Some of the soldiers have been identified and arrested, and are to be tried for the offence.

Huntington Again.

NEW YORK, April 17.

A man named John Scratcher was examined yesterday on a charge of attempting to effect the release of Huntington, the forger, from States Prison by means of a forged pardon. Scratcher, as alleged, has been endeavoring to obtain money from various parties to carry out this object. The affair which is involved in considerable mystery is to be further investigated.

From Havana.

MOBILE, April 16.

We have Havana dates to the 30. An attempt had been made to assassinate W. Sidney Smith, the British Consul, on account of his exposure of certain slave transactions.

The impression that there would be no war with Mexico was becoming more general.

PORTLAND, April 17.

The steamship Circassia sailed at 6 P. M. yesterday for Liverpool via Halifax and St. Johns.

A BRIDE WITH TWO BRIDEGROOMS.—A Tennessee paper announces the marriage of Mr. Benjamin Husky to Miss Susanna Parker, both of Selver County. Two expectant bridegrooms were in attendance at the "auspicious hour," each elate with the prospect of duplicating his existence. It seems that the fair deceiver had so wound herself into the affections of the two, that when "popping time" came round she was unable to resist, so urgent were they in their glorious cause. According to time set, both gentlemen were at the appointed place, both anticipating the brilliant "good time coming" with apparent coolness. The Squire announced his readiness to tie the desired knot by "lead your partner out on the floor," and to the astonishment of the assembled lookers-on, two grooms advanced with eagerness to grasp the fair hand of the cruel hearted and bewitching creature. After a somewhat animated discussion the two frustrated and almost prostrated aspirants to matrimonial honors concluded to let the lady make a choice, if one she could effect, between the two, which she soon accomplished, and was married to the one she most admired.

Holmes County.

The vote of Vermillion county, in reference to the proposed new county of Holmes, was about 1,000 majority against the speculation. We have not yet received the official vote.—Loda Garden State.

A new county down there is much needed; but the present project was done to death by the speculators. The Loda paper are in extasies over the defeat of the scheme. Loda desired to be the county seat but being beaten, turned in and upset the whole of the hasty plate of soup.

New York Canal Enlargement.

The people along the line of the Erie canal are in high glee over the passage of the bill for the speedy completion of the "enlargement," the money to be raised by direct taxation upon the State. When the news of the passage of the bill reached Rochester, a salute of 100 guns was fired at sundown, the military and music paraded, the citizens turned out en masse, bonfires were lighted, the business blocks were illuminated, speeches were made, and cheers given. The multitude dispersed at a late hour, but not until the rockets were all fired off, the bonfires exhausted, and the Roman candles brought to light. The Mayor made the opening speech, and among other things said:

"The consummation of this work, at a comparatively trifling expense, cannot fail to produce an immediate and lasting effect upon the growth and prosperity of our beautiful and already flourishing city; and at the same time yield a rich revenue to our State. It will impart new life and vigor to all our diversified interests, increase in extent and variety our commercial and manufacturing establishments, develope all our resources, and render Rochester one of the largest manufacturing cities in our State."

Douglas Pro-Slavery to the Backbone.

S. A. Douglas, who misrepresents this State in the U. S. Senate, is as Pro-Slavery at heart as Toombs or Stephens, or the most inveterate nigger-driver in the South. We have before us a statement which illustrates the deep rooted character of his Pro-Slavery sentiments.

The Richmond, (Va.) Christian Advocate, which is the Methodist Church organ for that State, contains, in its issue of the 9th inst., a long appeal to the Negro-breeding brethren, to subscribe money for the establishment of a Pro-Slavery Methodist church in Washington. It says:

"It is a remarkable fact, worthy of special note to Southern people, that in this City of Washington, there is a strong feeling of abolitionism pervading most of the Protestant churches. Men come here from all the Free States, and readily connect themselves with the different branches of the church, and, true to their mission, commence to abolitionize the entire church membership. This they do in such a way as not to give offence, or to make themselves obnoxious to their pastors—a number of whom, however, are strong and decided Northern men—or to offend other members of the church who differ from them on the subject of Slavery. These men who are rich in shrewdness and zealous in their efforts, associate and commingle with their Southern brethren; and in this way, step by step, gain the ascendancy over them in point of influence in the church; and remarkable as it may seem, exert a malign and deleterious influence upon their minds touching the institution of slavery.

It must be admitted that the day has arrived when all men, of whatever creed or profession, who entertain Southern sentiments, and love and cherish Southern institutions, should take their stand, firmly and decidedly, against the organization of such societies and conferences as the one alluded to, existing in slave territory. If we do not decide and speedily act upon this vital subject, we shall soon be driven to act in self-defence, when it will be too late to remedy the huge evil.

The Methodist Church, South, has organized a flourishing society in this city [Washington,] and procured a Church edifice for public worship, and is evidently producing a healthy and conservative influence throughout this community. The membership connected with this church is as yet small, (the ground having been heretofore exclusively occupied by the Baltimore conference,) and has hanging over it a small debt, though too large to be met and liquidated by the Church at this early stage and formation.

Already the good work of rendering aid has commenced, and it is with pride and thankfulness that we here record the fact that the following named gentlemen have, with noble hearts and generous hands, contributed the sums set against their names, respectively, viz:

Hon. C. C. Clay, of Alabama, $70; Hon. James F. Dowdell, of Alabama, $70; Hon. Benjamin Fitzpatrick, of Alabama, $50; Hon. Robert Toombs, of Georgia, $200; Hon. Alex. Stephens, of Georgia, $50; Hon. Thomas Rivers of Tennessee, $30; Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, of Illinois, $100; Hon. William Aiken, of South Carolina, $20.

This noble example, we feel assured, will be followed up by other friends of the Church at the South, until our Society shall be established upon a firm and lasting foundation."

To the above appeal, the True Union of Tuskegee, Alabama, adds as follows:

"The object of this appeal must commend it strongly to Southern sympathies. We take pleasure in noticing that our Senators and immediate representatives, Hon. James F. Dowdell, Hon. Robert A. Toombs and Alexander H. Stephens, and the Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, and other friends of the South in Washington, have not confined their zeal to the advocacy of our rights on the floor of Congress, but are pressing into every door open to Southern influence, to promote our cause."

We give the names of all the contributors to this negro-breeding, sectional church fund, just as they are published in the Richmond paper, and of the whole batch, it will be seen there is the name of no Northern man save the Senator from the Free State of Illinois. The Christian women-whippers had a city full of servile doughfaces from whom to beg—beginning with the Prince of them, President Pierce. But it seems that none of them, no not one, felt enough zeal in behalf of an "exclusively pro-slavery, sectional church, as to induce them to subscribe money to establish it. That honor was reserved for the Senator who claims Chicago as his home, and the Times as his special organ. Among all the disunion, sectional, fire-eating donors, his subscription stands the largest, with one exception.

It was not the cause of religion that prompted him to part with his $100, but his love and attachment for human bondage, and the strong desire which he feels to fortify and perpetuate it where it exists, and to extend it into unaccursed lands where it has not yet obtained admission.

What's in the Wind?

The New York Herald, which has been blowing hot and cold each day alternately since Buchanan's election, in its issue of the 14th inst., has the following prominently inserted:

Notice to the Political Friends of Fremont.—The honest and out-spoken political supporters of Col. Fremont, are earnestly advised to form, as soon as possible, Standing Committees and Clubs in every ward, precinct, district, city or county of the United States, and thus prepare the way properly to enter the field for the Presidency in 1860. Unless the friends of Fremont begin at once to act in this way, he and his supporters will be cheated by the corrupt politicians who are now seeking the management and control of the Republican party throughout the country. Now is the time to begin the great movement for 1860 by forming honest centres of union and intelligence against corruption, fraud and incipient revolution.

It is thought it published the above for the purpose of annoying Seward's friends, or for the purpose of driving some black mail bargain with the Buchanites.

Railroad Iron Seized.—The Racine Advocate says that the cargo of iron on board of the schooner Hibbard, which has just been got off from the beach, has been seized by the Sheriff on a claim of parties in Cleveland.

This iron we believe, was intended for the last two miles of the Mineral Point Road, which is all that remains unfinished. The people up at the Point will hardly like to wait the motion of the lawyers, their road in the meantime being incomplete.

Baker to be Discharged.—The N. Y. Express says that a motion is to be made, in a month or two, in the Supreme Court, to discharge Lewis Baker and his confederates in the Poole murder case, from their recognizances. This motion if granted, will be tantamount to their absolute acquittal.

To Embarrassed Merchants.—The following notice we cut from the advertising columns of the New York Herald: "Merchants embarrassed in want of means, or willing to suspend with means, by Associating, can hear of a party who has carried parties through to the amount of $30,000 without prejudice. Address 105 Herald office. References given."

A Dirty City.—The New York Times of the 14th inst., says that thirty thousand loads and over, of ashes, manure and dirt, have been transferred from the streets to the dumping grounds, within little more than a fortnight. All this filth was collected from the lower wards. What a horribly dirty city it must have been.

Des Moines River.—The Des Moines Citizen says that the Des Moines River, promises to remain in a boatable condition for a considerable length of time.

American Rowdyism and American Diplomacy.

In our dealings with the little Republic of New Grenada, the two go hand in hand. As at Greytown, first comes the insolent domination of the superior race over the natives on their own soil; then the threat of summary vengeance because an attempt at resistance has been provoked. A squad of Californians, made up in part of Southerners, to whom the color of a skin darker than their own was a sufficient excuse for any outrage upon its owner, and Northerners who are no better or more courteous when in a foreign land than their Southern neighbors, fell into a trifling quarrel with some of the natives at Panama, about the price of a water melon, a year or more ago, while temporarily detained at that place. Words were followed by blows, revolvers were drawn, knives leaped out of their scabbards, and in a few minutes there was a general and bloody melee, in which a number of lives were lost, Granadians as well as Americans. The fracas was just such a one as a parcel of Americans in such a place would be apt to provoke, by their unendurable insolence and rowdyism, but it had consequences which were not expected by those who were actors in it. It has been made the excuse for the exercise of that peculiar diplomacy which has distinguished our government in its dealings with weaker and helpless powers. A commission was instituted to examine into the affair, on the ground where it occurred, and the labor of that body was followed by a modest proposition, sent from Washington to Bogota, for the latter to cede to us the right of way for, and the entire control over, the route from Panama to the Atlantic coast. The only valuable franchise that Grenada has—the key to the commerce of the world.

We do not propose to discuss the advantages which would accrue to this government if it were invested with all that it claims; we will concede that they are incalculable. But we call the attention of our readers to the pitiable spectacle which we must present to the nations of the world in exacting from a neighboring state either territory or money as the price of the lives of citizens of the Republic. If any subjects of this Government have been unjustly treated—if they have suffered in person or property—by the subjects of any other power, why demand anything else than that the offenders shall be promptly and signally punished? It is not alleged, and it cannot be made to appear that the authorities at Panama, as the representatives of Grenada, were implicated in the crime. It is not charged that the government does not desire the punishment of the guilty if they can be identified and their guilt proven. But our longing for more territory, though obtained unjustly—our desire for commercial supremacy, though bought with blood still unavenged—does not permit the Administration to end its endeavors with obtaining an "eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth." It has taken up the case from the hands of its predecessor, and is intent upon the despoiling of a State that is too weak to resist. It means to perpetrate a robbery while crying for justice.

Elsewhere in this paper we publish the latest accounts from Bogota where the negotiations are or lately were going on. What other steps will be taken now depends upon Mr. Buchanan and his advisers. As matters stand, there is a dead-lock which nothing but the recession of one of the parties or a declaration of war can remove.

The Recent Lynching in Iowa.

The Galena Advertiser's account of the recent lynching in Iowa, copied by the Tribune yesterday morning, is not confirmed in all particulars by later news. The Advertiser fixes the scene of the terrible tragedy at Bellvue, while the Dubuque Express says it occurred at Andrew in the same (Jackson) county. The facts of the hanging do not materially differ. We get the following additional particulars from the latter paper:

Gifford, who murdered Ingalls, in the woods near Iron Hill, fourteen miles from Andrew, was in jail. On Saturday last twenty-four men from the former place, mostly neighbors of the murdered man, appeared at the prison door. The jail was entered by force, the door being broken open with a sledge. The jailor made no resistance, nor called on the citizens for help, to protect the prisoner or defend the jail. The uncle of the murderer had a few moments before rode into town and warned the jailor of the approach of the mob.

The mob was headed by Jacob Landis of Iron Hill, and on arriving in town proceeded at once to the jail and assailed the door with a heavy sledge. The door was a strong one, and did not yield until near two hundred blows had been struck. There were four other prisoners in the jail, who, with the assistance of Gifford, barricaded the door. The prisoner, on finding himself in the power of the mob, showed much alarm and asserted, on being told it was their intention to hang him, that "if you hang me, you hang an innocent man." From the jail the mob took Gifford to a tree just south of the school house, between that building and the cemetery, when a rope was put around his neck and thrown over a limb projecting over the pathway.

From 300 to 500 persons witnessed the hanging. A prayer was offered by a Methodist clergyman, Rev. Mr. Babcock, the guilty wretch kneeling and crossing himself; the surrounding crowd standing in respectful silence. There was no disturbance, no tumult, and a legal execution could not have passed off in a more orderly manner. No one attempted to interfere, the people of the county, it seems, had come to the conclusion that murderers cannot be punished if left to the due course of the law.

When the last moment arrived, the leader of the party tied a handkerchief over the eyes of Gifford, who remained standing, and every man of the 24 took hold of the rope. At a signal they pulled upon the rope together, suspended him in the air about eight feet from the ground. His irons had not been taken off and his arms being pinioned there was but little struggling as his guilty soul took its flight. His body was allowed to remain upon the gibbet tree for something over an hour, when it was taken down and placed in a rough box and interred in a field belonging to Dr. Cowden. During the whole of this time and until the body was buried, the crowd remained upon the ground silently witnessing the various occurrences.

The miserable man before the execution made a full confession of his guilt. He charged that his uncle, a man named Jerrett, and a neighbor David McDonald, were the instigators of this bloody deed; indeed they employed him to do what they dared not. The quarrel at the bottom of the whole affair was a common neighborhood feud. At last accounts the avengers were after Jerrett and McDonald, determined upon their death. It is a bloody business.

Interesting from the Gadsden Purchase.—The San Francisco Herald is permitted to make the following extracts from a private letter dated Tubac, (Gadsden Purchase,) Feb. 21, 1857:

We are progressing well in our explorations and operations. The Arevaca Rancho lately purchased for the company, contains many silver mines of rich ores, besides some golden placers, and copper and lead mines.

We have lately discovered and occupied ten veins of silver ore near Cero Colorado, between Sopori and La Arevaca of promising richness. The principal vein opened in honor of our old friend and President, "The Heintzleman Mine," yields upon assay thirty marcos to the cargo of three hundred pounds, or nearly $100 in silver to the one hundred pounds ore—the ore is abundant, and we have a force of Mexican miners employed in its extraction; but have no buildings or means of smelting and refining.

The territory is in a very bad condition. The Apaches continue to traverse it in large bands of 50 to 150. About 6,000 head of stock are carried out of Sonora per annum by these marauders, to say nothing of captives and booty. The Government of Mexico and people of Sonora are at their mercy. It would be a wise and liberal policy in our Government to purchase Sonora—whip out these marauders, protect the people, and develop the resources of that silver State.

In another letter, dated from the Colorado, the writer is exceedingly sanguine as to the mineral resources of the new Territory.

A Gay Lothario.—A good story is told of a fellow in North Carolina. Having been put in jail for marrying thirteen wives, he made his escape, and was seen three or four days afterwards by a gentleman who recognized him. The gentleman, anxious to secure the reward for his apprehension, invited him to dinner, and then slyly slipped out in pursuit of a constable; but great was his horror on his return to find that the culprit had absconded with his own wife!

Steamboats.—The Mississippi river has been navigable, between this city and St. Louis, all winter, except about a month, while the Missouri is as solid as ever, and no prospects of a thaw.—St. Louis Leader.

The Leader is mistaken very sadly. We do not consider it very "singular" that the Father of Waters should have a cold in his head, if he insists on keeping his mouth open eleven months in a year.—Keokuk Times.

Racine.—On a straight party vote for Circuit Judge in Racine. The result was 763 Republicans to 537 Democrats; majority 235. Whole vote 1300, which would indicate a population of about 8,000.

The following advertisement appears in a New York paper:—"$100,000.—A lady of 35 years of age, with $100,000, provided some gentleman will give his daughter, a sensible lady, to his own satisfaction, with $25,000. Marriage of Address, Justice, [illegible]. No [illegible]. Good name." [illegible]

Matters and Things at Racine.

[Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.]

Racine, Wis., April 17, 1857.

Dear Tribune:—I perceive that the Border Ruffian press are making much ado about nothing with regard to our municipal election, claiming a victory for the Sham Democracy. It is all moonshine, and their course only serving to exemplify the truth of the old adage that "Drowning men catch at straws." The attempt to bolster up their palsy stricken course by parading such a "victory" only serves to expose its innate weakness and injustice. Two Republicans allowed themselves to be used as tools in the hands of the Democracy, and ran as independent candidates for Clerk and Treasurer. The consequence of their folly was a distraction of the Republican strength and the election of Sham Democrats to those offices. The balance of the Republican ticket, Common Council, Supervisors, School Commissioners, &c., were all elected by majorities that exhibit a decided increase in Republican strength in the city since the Presidential contest.

The county did nobly. Whiton, Republican States' Rights candidate for Chief Justice, and who by his glorious decision rendered inoperative on the soil of Wisconsin, the odious Fugitive Slave Law, carried the county by a big majority, a large increase over Fremont's.

The German paper published at this city, has hitherto been an organ of the Barstow Hunker clique, and has done much to sustain Border Ruffianism—the Republicans having no German organ. But since fall election it has led rather a sickly existence, and the first of this month "kinder gin eout." It is now in staunch Republican hands. The "Pen Editorial" is wielded by Henry F. Hilgard, a talented young German and an accomplished writer. No doubt it will soon eradicate all traces of its former evil influence.

The Racine & Mississippi railroad is pushing rapidly forward to its completion, and will soon be at Savanna, and in connection with the Iowa Central railroad at Sabula.

The Racine College is in a healthy, flourishing condition, an additional building costing $12,000 is soon to be erected, the necessary funds being already subscribed by the liberality of our citizens.

A young man residing here named Henry A. Herring, a draughtsman, formerly of Milwaukee, committed suicide Sunday morning last. He was discovered about 8 o'clock lying upon the Bluff near the Light House, with his throat cut from ear to ear, nearly severing the head from the body. No motive is known for the rash deed. The sad affair created an intense excitement as he was known to all our citizens and was a young man of fine capability and of rare promise.

The vessels which were wrecked at this place in the last gale, have all been got off from the beach, except a scow and a small schooner which are a total loss.

Many of the former citizens of Chicago have residences here. Hon. J. H. Dunham, Wm. R. Irish, Esq., possess beautiful summer quarters here.

Poor Tim. Waite—everybody in Chicago knew Tim, departed this life last week at this place.

Our Main street would vie as far as mud is concerned with Lake street before it was paved. Measures are on foot to pave it.

Spring business opens finely here, with prospects of a heavy trade this season.

Yours &c.,

Racine, Wis., April 15, 1857. Bell.

Destructive Fire.

[From the Alton Courier of Thursday.]

Last night about 11 o'clock, a fire broke out in the Planing Mill of Messrs. Morrison & Beal, on Belle street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, which, when first discovered, was well under way, and very soon, in less than five minutes, enveloped the entire building and adjacent sheds. Soon after the alarm, a large number of people were on the ground, some of whom labored strenuously to save the lumber piled up in front and rear, but soon the heat became so intense, from the burning of the mill and the large amount of lumber in and about it, that they were compelled to desist. Of the mill nothing was saved, and but a small part of the lumber around it.

The fire next communicated to a frame building adjoining the lumber yard of the mill on the south, which was consumed in a few minutes, and then the flames communicated to several stables and outhouses, and thence to the Methodist church and parsonage, and to the two story frame building adjoining the parsonage, all of which were soon consumed.

The heat was intense, from the large quantity of the lumber in and around the mill, which made it impossible to work near the burning building. The Waverly house owned by A. L. Corson, on the corner of Third and Piasa sts., was several times on fire. The large brick warehouse, belonging to the editor of this paper, was on fire for upwards of an hour, but being covered with first rate tin roof, the door and window casings were deluged with water from the inside, and the efforts of a few spirited individuals who brought one of our fire engines it was saved, with but inconsiderable damage to the building. The Piasa house was several times on fire, but was well watched and the roof drenched with water and sand.

Every engine was out of order. Not a single nozzle of a proper size could be found, and when one engine was got in working order, it failed to throw a stream of water, some three hundred feet through hose, and through an inch and a half nozzle, over fifteen feet in heighth. The late hour at which we write this forbids comment. Much property has been destroyed—much has been damaged, and a vast amount more placed in real danger, by what—nothing on earth but the want of a well organized fire department. And this is entirely to be charged to appropriations to keep engines in order, to the City Council, who will not make the necessary appropriations to keep the fire department and companies in an efficient state. Over $40,000 of property has been destroyed in a single hour, one-half of which could easily have been saved by a single organized fire company.

P. S.—After the above was written and about three o'clock, the large brick warehouse was set on fire by some fiend in human shape, but was extinguished without any considerable damage. A pile of shavings had been collected on the second floor, and set on fire with the evident intention of burning the building and all it contained.

Phenix on Hoops.

Mr. Phenix writes: "Accompanied by my old friend Butterfield, who had joined us at Memphis, I landed at New Orleans, and proceeded forthwith to the St. Charles Hotel. At this great tavern Amos expected to meet his wife, who had arrived from California to rejoin him after a three months' separation. I never saw a man so nervous. He rode on the outside of the coach with the driver, that he might obtain the earliest view of the building that contained his adorned one. It was with great difficulty that I kept pace with him as he 'tumultuously rushed' up the step leading to the Rotunda. In an instant he was at the office and gasping 'Mrs. Butterfield.' 'In the parlor, sir,' replied Dan, and he was off. I followed and saw him stop with surprise as he came to the door. In the centre of the parlor stood Mrs. Butterfield. That admirable woman had adopted the very latest and most voluminous style; and having on a rich silk of greenish hue, looked like a lovely bust on the summit of a new-mown hay-stack. Butterfield was appalled for a moment; but hearing her cry 'Amos!' he answered hysterically, 'My Amanda!' and rushed on. He ran three times round Mrs. Butterfield, but it was of no use, he couldn't get in. He tried to climb her, but the hoops gave way and frustrated the attempt. He extended his arms to her; she held out hers to him; tears were in their eyes. It was the most affecting thing I ever witnessed. Finally, Mrs. Butterfield sat down, and Amos got behind her chair and kissed her, until their little offspring, by howling and biting the calf of his leg, created a diversion. They were very happy, so were the people in the parlor. Everybody appeared delighted; and a small boy, a year or two older than little Amos, jumped up and down like a whip-saw, and hallooed 'Hoop ee!' with all his might.

"'Butterfield,' said I, an hour or two later, 'I suspect that Mrs. Butterfield has adopted hoops.'

"'Oh! yes,' answered he, 'I saw that sticking out.'"

Bold Attempt.

Nashua, April 13.—O. K. Bradford, a painter and dealer in paper hangings, was arrested yesterday afternoon for stealing the keys of the Nashua Bank. He entered the house of the Cashier through a back door, about 11 o'clock Saturday night, and remained there until Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. When the Cashier arrived from church, he missed of the keys to the Bank and immediately suspected that the most important ones were stolen.

On looking in the bag where they are kept in a secret place, he found it filled with pieces of iron representing the keys. Not suspecting that the rogue would be in the house, a search was not made, but the daughter of the Cashier having gone up stairs, looked under a bed and found the thief quietly enjoying himself with a luncheon. Help was called and he was secured. The keys were found in his possession.

On examining the fellow's trunk, two bracelets belonging to the wife of Dr. Graves, whose house was entered a few weeks in the same manner, and valuable property stolen, were found, which clearly identified him as the thief.

Great Fire in South Pittsburgh.

On Tuesday morning, a fire broke out in the extensive planing mill of Mr. James Mellinger, in South Pittsburgh, and, before it was extinguished, destroyed a large amount of property. The planing mill and sash factory was entirely destroyed, together with some two million feet of lumber, belonging to Mr. Mellinger, and three dwelling houses. The total loss of Mr. M. is estimated at about $60,000. He is insured for $36,000, in different offices. The fire is supposed to have caught from the furnace stack, in the machine shop, third story, and when first discovered might have been extinguished with two or three buckets of water.

Mr. Mellinger's establishment was one of the most extensive and complete of the kind in the West, and the buildings, which were of brick, were constructed but a few years ago, at a very large expense. The loss in machinery alone is estimated at $20,000.

A large number of workmen are now thrown out of employment by this disastrous conflagration, and many of them had their tools destroyed in the confusion.

Telegraph to Quincy.—We are going to have a telegraph connection between this city and Galesburg. The line is to be erected under the direction of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. It is an improvement that is much needed. Let us be put up within the next ninety days.—Quincy Whig.

The Republicans of Wisconsin seem to have carried their State by a greater majority than that given for Fremont.

Threatened War with New Granada.

THE ARROGANT CLAIMS OF THE AMERICAN DEMANDS—DEPARTURE OF THE AMERICAN MINISTER.

[From the N. Y. Times.]

Important news is received by the George Law, from New Granada. The ultimatum of Commissioner Morse, claiming specific damages for the Panama massacre, has been rejected in the most offensive manner by the New Granadian Government. Our Commissioner, in consequence, demanded his passports and left Bogota on the 8th ult. Mr. Bowlin, United States Minister, intended to pursue a similar course.

Panama, April 3, 1857.

The half-monthly mail from Bogota, which left that capital on the 8th ult., brings us the important intelligence that our agents, Bowlin and Mr. Morse have completely failed in all their propositions and demands, and that the New Granadian Government has granted the latter his passports. The negotiations were finally broken off on the 28th February. Our agents were informed that their propositions for the cession of territory, or for intervention in the Government of the Isthmus, were simply insulting. Mr. Morse, whose first money demand was $600,000, then presented his ultimatum which was for $400,000, "and nothing less." To this the Secretary of State replied promptly, and of this I have information that is indisputable, that New Granada would not only not pay a dollar, but that she would demand from the United States indemnity for outrages toward her own citizens, both on the occasion of the 15th of April events, and on former occasions. Upon this declaration, Mr. Morse, after uttering a few threats of consequences, broke up the interview, notifying the Secretary that he would leave Bogota within forty-eight hours, and that Mr. Bowlin would soon follow him. Mr. Morse left on the 6th, and, according to letters in town, but which I do not get from my own letters, was insulted by the hootings and hissings of the population on his exit. He will be in Washington about the 20th of April.

The papers consider that Senor Pombo has obtained a great victory over the United States, from the fact that his demands have been reduced to a mere money payment; and well they may, if this be so. "The question has narrowed itself down, as is always the case in Yankee negotiations, to one of dollars!" they exclaim.

As the press of New Granada faithfully reflects public opinion, I have translated three or four articles from journals at the capital, and one from the Opinion, a paper lately established at Santa Marta, which you may find worthy of reproduction in the columns of the Times.

[From La Opinion of Santa Marta.]

New Granada must appeal to the sword as the only means to arrest the ambition of the filibustering government at Washington. * * * We know that we are weaker, but we are more valiant than they. And as we beat the Spaniards, notwithstanding the sympathies of custom, language, and religion that bound us to them, we can the more easily beat this degenerate race, who far from having any sympathies in common with us, we detest for their arrogance, their inordinate ambition, and their lax morality. * * * We are ashamed to acknowledge that Walker has maintained himself for eighteen months against five States, in the heart of Nicaragua, at the head of only 800 men, without discipline, without military subordination, without homogeneousness of language, some being Yankees, some Germans, and some Swiss. Were it not to offend the amour propre of our Central American brothers, we would send them a battalion of 200 men, who would whip these incendiaries, murderers and robbers in the very first encounter, or chase them from the country!

[From the New Granadian, March 7.]

In future the press cannot and ought not to discuss for a moment whether we can barter our sovereignty, independence, dignity or independence, dignity or territory. Such acts would be so infamous, so outrageous, so absurd, that they do not admit of the least consideration with any Granadino of honor and patriotism.

If the Yankees wish Panama, let them take it by force if they can. But they can never plant themselves on the isthmus, or on any other part of our territory, with our consent, be it as absolute masters, or be it with especial privileges of administration or intervention. The people of New Grenada will live, if they can live, in independence and with honor; otherwise they will disappear from the list of sovereign nations. They know how to fight, and how to die, when necessary. Their traditions, their present and their future, may exact the sacrifice. But they will never submit to the ignominy of filibuster barbarism.

Our government must take steps as will give us the support of foreign nations on the maintenance of our rights and interests.

[From El Tiempo, February 21.]

§ It is more than probable that the solution will not be a pacific one. The terms of the demands do not lead us to hope for it. Everything seems to concur in bringing about a disruption between the two Republics the most identicle in their form of government, and who for so many reasons, ought to remain friends. This will be a deplorable thing, not simply because New Grenada is infinitely inferior to the United States, not because the theatre of the struggle would be our own territory, where we shall have to submit to prolonged and cruel sacrifices, for the reason that being bound to defend our own rights and dignity, we must not contemplate the consequences, to go straight forward with our eyes shut to them.

LOOKING TO EUROPE FOR PROTECTION.

In this latter view of the case we should at once divest ourselves of our illusions, and prepare for a terrible struggle, looking to Europe for alliance or sympathy.

French Gossip.

EUGENIE JEALOUS AGAIN.

The Grand Duchess of Baden is expected in Paris, and apartments are prepared for her at the Tuileries. Her arrival may have a beneficial influence on the morals of the Emperor, which at the present moment are said to be in imminent danger from the great attraction of the Spanish beauty, Madame la Comtesse de Castiglione. Even the sun has its spots, and the blemish on the Emperor's purity is said to be his utter incapability of resisting the influence of beauty. Those who are well acquainted with the Emperor's passages to and fro, do assert that the state of this fair dame's dark eye is like the smile of Cleopatra on Mark Antony—almost magical in its influence. "Oh that my mother had brought me here three years ago!" she has been heard to say, "and I, too, should have had a chance of the highest place in France!" To one's own dull mind it is difficult to believe that a man whose mind must be so pre-occupied—who sits so high in an atmosphere of unseen daggers—who has gone through so many and such great things to attain his present dizzy eminence—can have space in his heart for such follies; but the fact is roundly asserted, and moreover, that the beautiful Eugenie is most unmistakably jealous.

ANOTHER NEW LION AT PARIS.

The latest novelty in the way of lions, is the priest, Padre Ventura. For some Sundays past his preachings have roused the attention and deranged the equanimity of the Court. The reverend person preaches the Lent sermons at the Chapel of the Tuileries. Louis XIV. gave ample liberty to Bossuet to denounce the vices of the age, and to proclaim the hollowness of Court flatterers and the vanity of worldly pomp. Louis Napoleon could not do less, and the eloquent dominican was given to understand, that if the tribune be silent, from the pulpit may yet be heard words of truth and solemn warning. The duty of Governments toward the people was the subject of the first discourse, and the select congregation could hardly believe their ears when they heard his strong condemnation of the system of Napoleon I. in the presence of his successor. The unbounded and selfish ambition, the disregard of the obligations of a ruler, and the incalculable disasters his system brought on the millions under his sway, were set forth. It was amusing to witness the astonishment of the ladies and gentlemen in attendance at the audacity of the preacher. Their features turned every color of the rainbow, and glances were furtively cast at the Emperor. He, however, betrayed no emotion; he listened throughout with the same calmness as if the sermon was but a strain of eulogy. The preacher at last relieved the apprehensions of the attendants by returning thanks to Heaven that France had now a ruler whose policy was of a different character, etc. It is to the credit of the Emperor that Father Ventura continues to preach. The congregation is small and necessarily select, and it is doubtful whether such sermons would be allowed in the more thronged churches.

Spain and Mexico.—Contradictory Accounts.

The Liverpool Times of the 28th ult., says:

We learn from Madrid that the Spanish squadron will land a force, and occupy a position on the Mexican Territory, with a view to ulterior movements, should circumstances render them necessary. This force will protect Spanish subjects, whom, it is alleged, the Mexican Government, on account of the anarchy which now prevails in the country, cannot protect.

The Madrid correspondence of the London Times (March 21st) says:

Nothing further has transpired as to the intentions of the government with regard to Mexico. The agent of that Republic has not yet arrived in Madrid, but he may be expected this evening, as by telegraph we have heard of his departure from Paris. Although Senor Lafragua will not be received officially, the government will hear what he has to say. It is doubtful if any large military force will be dispatched to Mexico.

In the first instance, Tampico and San Juan will be taken possession of by the squadron, and held until the assassins are punished by the Mexican Government, indemnity granted to the families of the victims, and the expenses of the war paid. By such cautious but energetic measures the government will sustain the dignity of the nation without incurring the risks of a campaign on shore and a large expenditure of men and money.

If the Epoca of Madrid, of the 22d ultimo, is to be believed, the government, contrary to its first intention, will consent to receive M. Lafragua, the Mexican Envoy, in order to hear what he has to say. The government has called for volunteers for the army in Cuba, a greater number of men had presented themselves than was required.

A dispatch from Paris of 24th March says:

"The Spanish Ministry is evincing increased determination to bring matters to a rupture with Mexico, as M. Garcia, the Minister just returned thence, states that the Mexican government is actually in too feeble a state to give the reparation required."

Wealth of Quincy and Keokuk.—The Quincy Herald says that the assessment of that city amounts to between $10,000,000 and $11,000,000. This spring's assessment of Keokuk amounts to considerable over $10,000,000. So that in point of wealth, we are on a par with the Gem City.

LATER FROM HAVANA.

ARRIVAL OF THE "EMPIRE CITY."

By the arrival of the Empire City at New York on Tuesday last, we have the following interesting items from Havana:

Sugar has advanced half a real per arrobe.

A brisk trade is noted in the article of "Coolies," four cargoes having arrived since previous advices, say 1,322 "in bulk," in addition to 450 spoiled on the passage.

Competent authority quotes (in happy succession to the above) business at a stand still on account of Holy Week, and as novelty airing a "penitence" and that of a temporary nature.

On the 1st of April Capt. George and the Commissioners appointed by Gen. Concha, to inspect the Guano Keys, returned from their cruise. Their report is highly satisfactory.

Gen. Concha was making preparations to lodge the 10,000 men who were expected from Spain for the prosecution of the war against Mexico. News had been brought to Havana by the Spanish war steamer Colon, that the measures adopted by Gen. Concha had been approved at home, and that 2,000 men were being embarked in Cadiz on board the ship-of-the-line Isabel Segunda, frigate Bailen, sloop Villa de Bilbao, brig Pelayo, and steamer Francisco de Asis.

The Diario de la Marina continues the discussion of the tariff, and boldly advocates the reduction of fifty per cent. on all articles. From the supposition that the Diario only writes under official authority, its remarks on this question are entitled to considerable weight.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Cuba sugar crop this year will be shorter, by one fifth, than it was last year.

Our correspondent, writing from Havana on the 8th of April, says:

"Berrell, on the south side, is receiving cargoes of Africans constantly, and when he cannot bribe the local chief, he manages to buy up all his subordinates, and carries on his business with impunity. We have had an arrival on the north side, with 370 negroes, since last advices."

Arrival of Strangers.—On yesterday, some two hundred Pennsylvanians arrived in this city, who design settling in this county, as we understand, in the vicinity of Mendon. This is first instalment of the season. We say to all, everywhere, "Come along! come along! make no delay! Come from every nation—come from every way! For we have room in plenty, air, for many thousands more, and land as rich as any land you ever saw before!"—Quincy Whig.

EXTENSION WILL 1ST MAY.—DR. CALVIN M. FITCH, Author of the Invalid's Guide and Consumptive's Manual, &c., &c., and his associate, JAMES W. SYKES, M.D., may be consulted daily (Sabbath excepted) till the first of May, at their rooms at the Tremont House, Chicago. [illegible]

Office hours from 10 to 4 o'clock.
Consultation personally or by letter free.
As Drs. Fitch and Sykes will, on no account, be able to visit all at the same time, patients from a distance need fear no detention or delay.

HINTS TO INVALIDS.—Or, Suggestions for the relief of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, &c. by Drs. Fitch and Sykes, sent free of charge to any requesting it.

Dr. Fitch's Invalid's Guide as Consumptive Manual, &c., sent by mail to any part of the United States on receipt of 25 cents in postage stamps. Letters may be addressed either to Dr. Fitch or Dr. Sykes.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.—CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—After several years experience in manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1847, in making a discovery in its manufacture, by which it was deprived of acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Schiedam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps." Schiedam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink.—Cogn. Dram.—Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the liquor mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in parcels with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Schiedam Gin, Schiedam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to placed as a chemical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles, a merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of his community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory for popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS
Is made from Barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the celebrated Juniper Berry of Italy, and rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every oil and particle.

As a means of preventing and arresting the dangerous and often fatal diseases produced upon the sojourners in, and settlers of, new and unacclimated portions of the West, the South and South-west are peculiarly liable—the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible. [illegible]

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen each, with my name on the bottle, cork and label, and a fac-simile of my signature on the label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

IMPORTANT TO CONSUMPTIVES.—Many valuable lives have been saved by Hegeman, Clark & Co.'s Genuine Cod Liver Oil, which, in all human probability would have been lost but for its timely use.

It is no quack medicine, but the Pure Oil, made with the utmost care from the Fresh Cod Fish Livers, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in Europe and America, and has proved by ten years' experience, the most valuable remedy for Consumption and Scrofula ever discovered, for, while it cures the disease, it increases the health and strength of the patient.

CAUTION.—There is a great deal of spurious oil, adulterated with Seal Oil, Whale Oil, &c. [illegible]

Notice, that Hegeman, Clark & Co.'s signature is over the cork, and the Eagle and Mortar on the label. [illegible]

SATURDAY MORNING .... APRIL 18.

[From the Boston Journal of Monday.]

Yesterday morning, it being generally understood that Mr. Kalloch was about to resume the duties of the pulpit, an immense crowd of listeners filled the Tremont Temple in every nook and corner, and hundreds gathered in the street who were excluded from the building from sheer want of room for their accommodation. Several policemen guarded the doors, and the great crowd was kept in entire order. Inside the Temple a vast audience was collected all of an hour before the usual time of service and waited with great patience for the commencement of the exercises. The audience was composed of more than half ladies, and never have we seen the spacious Temple more densely packed.

At the usual service hour Mr. Kalloch entered the hall from the ante room, and his appearance caused considerable sensation among the audience. His appearance indicated not the least embarrassment, and his manner was cool and collected in the extreme. At his side sat Dr. Frye of Rockland, Me.

After a chant by the choir, Mr. Kalloch assumed the sacred desk, and before commencing the religious services of the morning, made a brief address to his hearers upon the recent occurrences that have agitated the public mind.

He said that after the events which have attended his trial; after the sights, scenes and stories which were there made apparent, and of which more might hereafter be heard, and after receiving a hearty and unanimous invitation from the members of his church, he had concluded to come again to his post and resume his duties. He was aware that this step might appear bold to some, and inconsistent to others, but a sense of his own entire innocence of the charge laid against him, had induced him to comply with the wish of his people. Those who thought in their minds that the step was unwise and prejudicial to the cause of Christ, he hoped would weigh the matter carefully, and judge of matters as they now were, and with all charity. It was difficult, he observed, to suit the feelings of all, and while many have perhaps censured him for the resumption of his duties, yet many also have said, during the time of his trial, when from a sense of duty he had left the sacred desk—Why does he not preach? If he is not guilty, why does he abandon his calling? He has had no part nor lot, nor is he answerable for the charge and proceedings now pending against him, and if he is clear and spotless in his own mind and heart, why does he regard these calumnies and cease his vocation? This has all been said time and again, in all places. He had waited for a great length of time for a jury of his countrymen to pass their verdict upon him, and they having failed to instruct him, his duty now called upon him to judge for himself. He had judged for himself, and his duty and the call of his people impelled him again to resume his pulpit.

It has been kindly suggested to me, continued Mr. Kalloch, by some of the newspapers of the day, that my presence in the sacred desk would be but a reproach to the cause of religion, and that it would be well for me to leave the ministry, for the study of law. With all deference to their opinions, I cannot so consider it. I do not see why I should leave a field and a labor that I love, for another sphere, while yet I can be of service to my Master in the calling that I cherish. This may not be the opinion of a portion of the public, but with all deference again, I do not see with my present light that it is any of the public's business. If the twenty-five hundred persons to whom I have ministered during the past year within this temple, want still to hear me, why let them come. If they do not want so to hear, most assuredly they can remain away. No man is forced to worship within these walls if the service of your minister is distasteful to him, and no family of this church shall I intrude upon, unless my visits are welcome. And further, I would say, that no one quicker than myself would leave a field where his labors were profitless. The merest whisper of dissatisfaction in the great body of this church, would be quite sufficient for my instant withdrawal. Holding these views then, and being earnestly and unanimously called back to this my former desk, I have felt it my duty to return and here to continue.

It has been variously stated, he remarked, that he was anxious for, and desirous of a new trial. This in some respects was a mistake. He had hoped for an entire acquittal at his former trial, but there the jury reached no definite conclusion. He was ready to meet his accusers again face to face, and with the same assurance of innocence as before. But the scenes of that week were harrassing and most torturing to his every feeling and sensibility, and he would not willingly renew them. The matter, said he, is now in the hands of District Attorney Morse, and no doubt such further action would be taken, as was for the interest of the government. He should not seek a new trial, but he would meet one, fearlessly and with strengthened hopes.

In conclusion, he begged his friends and his church to remember that although he appeared before them nervously and physically strong, yet he was weary and ill at heart from his recent great excitement, and all that could be expected of him was, that he should occupy his pulpit for a short period, and then be allowed to rest. He exhorted his hearers to walk humbly through this life; meek and lowly like our great Master, leading a life of purity before man and in the presence of God, that our end in death may again be like unto and worthy of Him who died for us.

At the conclusion of this address, Mr. Kalloch commenced and continued the usual services of the morning. His sermon was preached from a text found in the 30th chapter of Genesis, 27th verse:

"For I have learned by experience that the Lord hath blessed me for thy sake."

From this selection, he preached a general sermon upon the uses and purifications of adversities and sorrows, but containing no particular allusions to his own case. The church, as we have said, was crowded to excess, but not the slightest disturbance was manifested, and the services were listened to with intense interest.

JUST FOR FUN.

MATRIMONIAL MEASURE.—Two polkas make one flirtation.
Three flirtations make one squeeze of the hand.
Four squeezes make one kiss.
Five kisses make one moonlight meeting.
Six moonlight meetings make one wedding.
Two weddings make four fools. So says some crusty old curmudgeon, with whom we take the liberty to disagree in opinion.

JOHN PHILPOT CURRAN.—A certain Judge observing much tittering in Court one day, and fancying that he was the object, whispered to Curran, who stood near the bench:

"Curran, do you see anything ridiculous in this wig?"

"Nothing but the head, my Lord," was the witty barrister's reply.

"Mr. Jones, don't you think marriage is a means of grace?"

"Certainly; anything is a means of grace that leads to repentance."

The best and most conclusive reason for an effect that we ever remember to have heard, was given by a Dutchman, in reply to a friend, who remarked:

"Why, Hans, you have the most feminine cast of countenance I have ever seen."

"Oh, yaw," was the reply, "I know the reason for dat—my mother vas a woman."

"Joe, my father's an old mariner—a regular salt."

"Why, I never knew that. What service was he in?"

"The whaling service. He goes cruising around all night, and in the morning, when he comes home, he goes a whalin the whole family, from the old 'oman down, and hoists the compass about the hired girl's ears."

1st little boy.—Jack, what did you cotch a fishin' yesterday?
2d do.—Well, I cotch one whoppin' big—
1st do.—Big what?
2d do.—Lamming, greenhorn! for playing hookey.

BELOW ZERO.—Jones (who thinks that Smith has been a little too free with Mrs. Jones.)—Mr. Smith, I wish to speak with you privately.—Permit me to take you apart for a few minutes.
Smith (who isn't in the least frightened) Certainly, sir, if you promise to put me together again.

A western paper records a melancholy case of suicide. A young gentleman ate a pint of dried apples, and then drank water till he bursted. The rash act was caused in consequence of his father forbidding him to grease his mustache with the butter-knife.

SOUND DUES.—Country editors rejoice—city readers rejoice—everybody rejoice. There will be no more talk about Sound Dues,—when a country editor picks up a daily newspaper in hopes of news, he will not be met with—a leader on sound dues. When a regular taker sits down to his breakfast in the morning, he will no more be compelled to associate sound dues with the fragrance of his coffee.

There has been something rotten in Denmark but it is cut out. The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writes:—"The Secretary of State has just completed the arrangements with Denmark, through the Danish Minister, for the abolition of the sound dues. The amount we have to pay is $390,000, while England has near $4,000,000. The whole amount payable by all nations, including England and the United States, is about $15,000,000. Denmark is forever to keep up the necessary light houses."

GLORY TO OHIO.—Baron Von Humboldt insists that Ohio is the Queen State of the Union, and we are sure that he is not right. At all events, she is queenly in her liberality to humanity, unflinching in the cause of humanity. The select committee have reported a resolution, instructing the committee of finance to report a bill appropriating $100,000 for the relief of the people of the Territory of Kansas, to be placed in the hands of the Governor for use, whenever, in his judgment, such exigency shall arise as to justify him.—Col. Gaz.

OUTRAGEOUS WILL—TYRANNY AFTER DEATH.—There is a young, healthy, handsome widow in this city, who has an income of $15,000 a year, and who would be very glad to marry a man who had not the slightest objection to the union. But her late husband, under a fit of jealousy, in making and executing his will, left a clause devising all his property to a collateral relative, if his widow should wed a second husband. [illegible]

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

A letter from Paris says:

"The approaching marriage of the Sultan's daughter with the son of the Pasha of Egypt has given an immense impulse to the luxe sumptuary of Paris. The Sultan, with an unexampled generosity, has given commissions to the extent of four-and-twenty millions of francs for jewels and embroideries destined for the bride. The cup from which the bride drinks on her wedding morning is already executed, and is valued at thirty-two thousand pounds sterling. It is of a pea shape, pure gold, incrusted with diamonds of the largest size and finest water. The top is bordered by a fringe of diamonds, all of equal size and immense value. These hang detached from the cup and move and sparkle in a constant flutter. Nothing more beautiful than this cup has ever been produced. The bridal slippers of cloth of gold, embroidered in millions of diamonds, have also created a sensation amongst the sight-seers of Paris. They entirely confirm the tales of Eastern magnificence which we have been accustomed to read with the impertinent credulity of European ignorance; and as we look around the room at Mayer's, where these wonders are displayed, we believe, like Hanan the shepherd, that all things are possible to his Highness the Padishah. The wedding robe has not yet arrived from Lyons, but the jeweled border, which is to surround it, is already completed, and it is absolutely dazzling in its magnificence. By the Sultan's desire this border, which is of an arabesque pattern, is made to contain specimens of every precious stone at present known under the sun; and the design is so beautifully carried out, that, although as many jewels are collected together as the space will hold, yet they do not seem overloaded or crowded together in any way."

Another letter from Paris says:

"One morning lately every newspaper office of Paris was visited by a government messenger who, in breathless haste, forbade them to print a word of the news which had just arrived from Meaux. The Grand Vicaire had fled with one of his fair penitents, Mad'lle Vacquerie by name, and one of the most beautiful girls in the place. What makes the affair so horrible just at this moment is, that this intrigue of the Grand Vicaire, which forms one of the accusations upon which Verger based his proofs of the corruption of the clergy, breaks out just as Verger and his damning proofs were beginning to be forgot. The young lady, who has refused the most brilliant offers of marriage and who is possessed of a large fortune in her own right, has, by the advice of her paramour, who is supposed to have been her lover ever since she first attended his confessional, five years ago, only waited till her coming of age and the transfer of her money from the hands of her relations into her own, in order to take this extraordinary and decided step. The Grand Vicaire is a tall, handsome man, of good family. The fugitives have landed in England; and rumor declares that the reverend father has written to his bishop, announcing his intention of throwing his froc aux orties, and threatening, on the first sign of persecution or annoyance on the part of the ecclesiastical authorities, to issue a public confirmation of all the 'horrible calumnies' which were suppressed in Verger's trial."
